FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, DC – April 23, 2012 – The Coalition for Government Procurement (the “Coalition”), a national trade organization representing commercial contractors in the Federal market, announces the addition of Carolyn Alston as Executive Vice President and General Counsel.

“We are very pleased that the leading expert on GSA Multiple Award Schedule contracting issues has joined our team,” said Roger Waldron, President of the Coalition. “Carolyn’s knowledge and experience, especially her role in developing and working with GSA’s Multiple Award Schedule policy, will be a wonderful addition for our membership and the procurement community.”

Bill Gormley, Chairman of the Coalition said, “Carolyn’s history with GSA and the Multiple Award Schedules program provides tremendous domain credibility and depth to the Coalition. Her addition complements Roger Waldron’s extensive knowledge of GWACs and governmentwide contracting.”

Prior to joining the Coalition, Carolyn was General Counsel at Washington Management Group, a Deltek company, and had a distinguished career with the U.S. General Services Administration. Her GSA career culminated in running the agency’s successful GSA Multiple Award Schedule program as Assistant Commissioner for the Office of Acquisition.

Carolyn holds a BA from Cornell University and a JD from Georgetown Law Center. Carolyn is a member of the bar in Maryland and the District of Columbia.
