

Kenneth Dodds is an Industry Expert at Live Oak Bank, a leading provider of capital for government contracting mergers and acquisition and asset backed financing. He joined Live Oak Bank after 21 years at the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), where he was a Senior Executive in the Office of Policy, Planning and Liaison responsible for Federal small business government contracting regulations and policy. Previously he was the Director of the Office of Government Contracting, a senior attorney in SBA's Office of General Counsel, and an Assistant Counsel to the SBA Inspector General.